

Scott M. Drucker, Esq.

Scott Drucker is an attorney and the Chief Legal Officer for the Arizona REALTORS[®], overseeing the strategic direction and operations of the largest trade association in Arizona. Along with the Association's Officers, Scott directs the formulation and implementation of the Arizona REALTORS[®] Vision, annual Strategic Plan, goals, and objectives.

After studying at the London School of Economics and obtaining a bachelor's degree in political science from the University of Rochester, Scott received his Juris Doctor degree from The George Washington University Law School.

He became a founding partner in Mack, Drucker & Watson, PLC, a Phoenix based law firm and represented clients in every county in Arizona -- both in state and federal courts, as well as before the Arizona Department of Real Estate, Arizona Registrar of Contractors and Arizona Department of Financial Institutions.

Scott has served on numerous Arizona real estate committees and is a frequent speaker on real estate issues. He also currently serves as a member of the Arizona Regional Multiple Listing Service (ARMLS[®]) Strategic Steering Committee.
